

It is imparitive that you continue to allow us to block all of the harassing and unnecessary marketing calls. It is an invasion of our privacy into our homes. It is bad enough that we have to deal with all of the advertisement on newspaper, radio, tv, magazines and other media. We should not have to deal with it as well on the telephone in the privacy of our home.